"STRAWS SHOW WHICH WAY THE WIND BLOWS."

That times are better and money more plentiful was clearly demonstrated during the Christmas buying in Fairmont this year, which was greater than in any previous year.

This is a plain index to the great prosperity that is sweeping the country. People have money and they have just demonstrated the fact in a small way and very soon they will be reaching out along more pretentious lines. They will begin to buy homes, and properties for profits which are sure to be made in the very near future. More articles of every kind will be required and more manufactories needed and the ones now in operation will require more workmen and thus there will be more work and more money for everybody.

Indications are that 1906 will be a banner year in business and commerce. Fairmont will be in position to get her fair share of every thing good that's going.

Don't forget to say and do something good for your town next year.

FIRST WARD NOTES.
By Our Regular Correspondent.

Gay Humphrey, of Grafton, is in the city as the guest of Charles Rinehart for a few days.

Joseph Nuxel, of Madison street, was admitted to the City Hospital yesterday for surgical treatment.

Miss Elsie Vane Ross, of Selma, Indiana, arrived in the city last night on an extended visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, of East Park avenue, and other friends.

William C. VanGilder, of Chicago, a lawyer and real estate dealer of reputation, is in the city as the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Moran, on East Park avenue. He will also visit other friends in the city and country until after the first of the year, when he will return to Chicago.

Clarence D. Robinson and Brent Swearingen have purchased the property on Water street occupied by Will Jenkins' barbershop, having 16 feet front and being 40 feet deep. Both the purchasers are acquainted with real estate and know a good bargain when they see it.

Charles Rinehart has sold out his interest in the cleaning and pressing shops located under Skinner's Tavern, to Abe Husted and Will Satterfield, his former partners. Mr. Rinehart thinks of going to Elkins to establish a shop of the same kind in the near future.

Henry Ruble, of Merchant street, one of our old citizens and an ex-soldier of the civil war, was stricken with paralysis on his right side, several days ago, which is still helpless and causes much anxiety on the part of his family. His many friends join in sympathy with him in this affliction and earnestly hope for his early restoration.

John S. Scott has consummated a deal with the B. and O. railroad company for a strip of his property on the river front, and running up beyond the Merfield Hotel, where it extends back on Water street. Thus one by one the company is closing up its options taken along the front, and either preparing the way to build or protects its interests against outside encroachments.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil, sunshine and atmosphere, seemed never to achieve a healthy growth?

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vasoline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WORK FASHIONS

Patented For a New Imported Gown Designed by Martha Dean—Nos. 6550 and 6551.

The newest importations in street costumes show much individuality in the way of tailored effects. Here is a gown of trim attractiveness, stitched in tucks and with its groups of three buttons, deep circle and fancy trimming strap adding novelty and dash. The wearer of such a gown must needs possess good taste and appreciation of the excellent in line and contour. The blouse shows tucks stitched full length and forming a vest effect in front. A modishness is lent by the trimming strap covering the shoulder seam and simulating a shallow yoke in back. The ends cross in front and fasten with buttons. The deep cuff provides a trim finish at the wrist. The skirt is tucked on the seams with double tucks in front. Sicilienne, volle, henrietta or taffeta may serve as material, as may also pongee, rajah or linen. No. 6550, six sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust; No. 6551, six sizes, 20 to 30 inches waist.

MAGISTRATE IN THE LOCK-UP

Too Much Christmas Booze Lands Expounder of Law Behind Bars.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 29.—"Squire Samuel N. Black, an eminent jurist who presides over a justice factory that is located on the South Side, is a distinguished guest of the city. The 'Squire' occupies a cell in the lock-up. Next to him is Bob Walton, a negro prisoner, who the 'Squire' gave a salty dose of Blackstonian justice of the South Side variety a few weeks ago. When the eminent jurist from the far end of the bridge was brought in limp and dead to the world, Bob Walton's laugh jarred the big bell in the city tower and came near turning in a fire alarm. Between laughs Bob was heard to remark that 'Squire Black was no better than a 'nigger.' Incidentally, Bob dallied with the judicial whiskers and when justice awoke next day, he found about half the bunch of apaches that adorned his firm chin missing.

Too much booze put 'Squire Black down and out. He went down on top of a stone wall on Sixth street, mistaking it for an ostentatious mattress. Also, when he went down, he went down. When Patrolman Williams found that the sleeper was 'Squire Black, South Side dispenser of justice, he was shocked. But duty was on guard, even if justice had swooned, so Williams bundled 'Squire into the wagon and took him to the bastle. Here he staid, and was arraigned with the other drunks and disorderlies before Recorder Leonard next morning when he got a sample of his own justice, administered without fear or favor.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Godfrey Syles, a civil engineer, of Flagstaff, Arizona, has been made superintendent of the desert reservation.

Herbert H. D. Pierce, our new minister to Norway, is a native of Massachusetts and a relative by marriage of Senator Lodge.

Gilbert Watson, the travel writer, began a novel when he was 11 years old. He has not finished it yet and probably never will complete that particular narrative. But he has been twice around the world and has seen most countries intimately.

The Duke of Sutherland has given his palatial seat in the potteries, Tranter Hall, England, which is the Italian palace mentioned by Lord Beaconsfield in his novel, "Lolita," to the Staffordshire county council for the purpose of higher education.

Members of the faculty and friends of Prof. Frederick Starr, at the University of Chicago, fear that he has met with disaster. No word has been received from him since he left Gibraltar for the heart of the great central African forest two months ago for anthropological research.

Worthington C. Ford, chief of the manuscript division of the Library of Congress, has just finished for the meetings of the American Historical Society, to be held this week in Washington, one of the greatest exhibits of American historical material ever exhibited in the United States.

Augustus Thomas is to make radical changes in "The Embassy Ball," in which Lawrence D'Orsay was to star this season, but which proved disappointing. It is thought the weakness of the play lay in its confusing political story, which will be revised.
